President's Message

I hope all of you agree that our Carving Show the end of March was nothing short of AMAZING!!! Each year I attend these I am reminded about what a great talented group of carvers we have here in Salem. I was also quite pleased with more attendance by the public this year. Thank you, Donna Miller, for all the extra advertising notices she was able to get in the newspaper. That really helped a lot!

Congratulations to all those that received awards at the Show. We appreciate you taking the time and effort to submit your carvings for review. We want to especially recognize Everett Koontz for his "Carving of the Year" and Everett Carter for his "Best of Show" award. Congratulation gentlemen!

I hope you all had a chance to spend some time at Lew Wakefield's booth and admired his work as I did. He was a fine representation for us all as the Featured Carver this year. Great work Lew!!

Congratulations to all the award winners. Thank you very much for taking the time and effort to enter your carvings for judging.

I would like to offer a special thanks also go out to all the people that provided us with so many raffle and Auction prizes. Prizes were also provided by our two vendors, Blue Ribbon Wood Carving Supplies, and Cacade Carvers Supply. These two companies support our organization and we hope you will support theirs as well. Without everyone's support we could not put on such a great show.

I cannot finish talking about the Carving Show without complementing our VP Donna Miller again, but this time for the excellent meal she provided for us. She even made the berry cobbler herself! Three cheers for Donna for a job well done!

For those of you that missed the auction and dinner on Saturday night of the Show it was announced that the nomination committee selected Frank Campbell for the Featured Carver at next year's Show. Congratulations Frank!

Thanks go to all that participated in one form or another. It wouldn't have been such a great Show without YOU!

At the next meeting please welcome these new members: Connie Lepin, David Coop, and Bill Bonniksen.
