President's Message

We are now into the second month of the year and what a month it has been so far. I think the snow caught most of us by surprise and especially the amount we got. At my home we received 11 inches and that's the most we have gotten here in the past nineteen years.

As you know Everett Koontz and Lou Wakefield are working diligently preparing for our carving show in April of this year. A meeting was held with Marilyn Daily the Manager of the Center and arrangements were made for the proper number of tables and assistance for setting them up along with fixing our hours for the show and for our dinner up stairs and the auction. A few new ideas were kicked around including yard signs to advertise the show. Marilyn related we could put them along Portland road on the Center property and that way we would not need special permits. Apparently these signs would cost around seven dollars each but are reusable. We could put them up about a week in advance and get some excellent advertisement.

Vice President Jack Dalton is looking into alternatives for the meal prior to the auction and we will be asking for input from our members who attend the meal as to what they would prefer.

Ken Lake has asked to step down from member at large position and Denis Miller will take his place. Thanks Ken for your years of dedication and service in that position.

News Boy Bob Harris has indicated that he would like to get our new letter out earlier in the month as it seems a lot of things are already over by the time the news letter is posted.

Well as you can see I get long winded but I'd like to keep club members that miss our meetings as informed as possible.

See you all at the next meeting....lets have a large attendance.

Frank

If you didn't attend the Coastal Carvers show in January, you missed a lot of beautiful work;, much of it done by some of our own Capitol Carver members who also had a table there.

George G. sits amid just a few of his multitudinous carvings. (A few of his pin-up selection was omitted from the photo, due to 'X' rated content.)

Dave and Bill exchange wisdom while Bob eavesdrops.

Everett K and Bob C proof the January newsletter but only found ten errors!

NOTICE:
Starting in March, the newsletter will be on the website on the Monday PRIOR TO the monthly meeting and a few hard copies will be at the meeting for those without access to the web.

It was a beautiful, if windy, day on the beach. Lots of kites flying waves roaring in to soak the unwary and even stubborn beachcombing carvers in search of a bit of driftwood. Some seem so enamoured of a 'find', they don't think about how to get it in their car! (Must be retired State workers or policemen)

Wood carvers are always on the lookout for supplies. This one may have bitten off more than he can carry home!

(First one to guess the identity of this beachcomber gets a Special Prize)
