President's Message

Remember that there is a board meeting Nov 7, 2018 at 50+ Center.

I spent a few hours at the ornament sale in Rickreall Friday. Sales were good averaging about $100 per hour. Many thanks to all of you who produced a wonderful assortment of ornaments for the sale. I expect we will have had a very successful sale, (I write this before I have been notified of final sales results).

I look forwards to seeing all of you at the November Pot Luck next normal meeting night.

Denis

Kaler Howard Presentation

Kaler Howard Presentation

Kaler Howard provided the night's program on wood burning gourds. She explained the different varieties with samples of each. She also covered resources for obtaining gourds. Finally she summarized the techniques of cleaning, prepping, burning, adding color and finishing the products. Kaler then answered several audience questions.

The presentation was great and informative. Thank you Kaler.

Meet Terry Moss

Meet Terry Moss

Terry has been involved in woodworking in one form or another since he was a boy. His grandfather always seemed to be building furniture or turning bowls. Terry loved to spend time in his shop and watch him work. Even as a kid Terry found that there is nothing like the smell of fresh sawdust. Like his grandfather, Terry also built a number of furniture pieces including a grandfather clock.

Terry has been interested in carving wood for quite some time. He is not exactly sure what turned him on to the idea except that he's always been fascinated by people who can turn a block of wood into a piece of art. Two years ago he decided that he wanted to try it, but did not have any tools or even know how to start. It was suggested that he call Jeff Harness. Jeff generously shared a number of tips and invited Terry to his Wednesday night carving class. As they say, the rest is history. Jeff is a terrific instructor and mentor. Terry's favorite style of carving so far has been caricature carving.

When not carving Terry enjoys hunting deer and elk. In the off-season he spends quite a bit of time in the woods antler shed hunting.

Terry was a police officer in St. Helens for the last 27 years. He was the Chief of Police for the last five. After recently retiring from police work Terry took a job at the Oregon Public Safety Training Academy in Salem as the Leadership Program Coordinator. Terry has been married to his wife Bonnie for almost 30 years. They have a 24 year old son who is working towards a degree in Digital Communication at Oregon State University and a 20 year old son who is in the Air Force, currently stationed in Spangdahlem Germany.

Someday Terry hopes to be able to invest more time into his guitar and learn how to play. For now his focus is on carving and it takes up most of his free time.

Ornament Sale

Christmas Ornament Sale

The OSU Extension 4H Christmas sale in Rickreall was a great success. One hundred and eighty three ornaments were donated. We earned $760 at the sale. The remaining ornaments will be donated to the Center 50+ as a fund raiser for the Center.

Club Dues

Dues Coming Up In January

That time of the year is coming again. Club dues, $12.00 per year, are coming due January 2019. Please continue supporting our club. We have a great club because of our membership.

Reed Barker will be collecting dues during the January meeting. Dues can also be mailed to the club address available on our website.

What Are Members Working On?

Mary Davis has been working on a Peregrine Falcon. This beautiful carving is an outstanding carving including texturing, burning, and painting.

Mary worked on this carving at the monthly open carving sessions at the Center 50+. Many who attend these sessions work on wildfowl and share ideas, techniques, and experience with each other.

If you've had any desire to carve a wildfowl, you should check out these monthly sessions held on the fourth Saturday of the month, 9:AM – 3:00PM.

Veterans Day Dinner

Veterans Day Dinner

As most of you know several of our Salem restaurants offer a free meal to pay honor and to say a big "Thank You" for services rendered to our country, by our veterans.

Last year fourteen or so of our Capitol Woodcarvers veterans and their guests met at the Applebee's restaurant located on Lancaster Drive NE. They treated us very well and the food was excellent. We all had such a great time, we are going to go there for an early dinner on Veterans Day, Sunday, November 11 at 3:00PM.

We hope you will join us this year. If so please let Lou Wakefield Sr., Don Fromherz, or Bob Curtis know. The restaurant needs a headcount.

Salem Spirit Award

Salem Spirit Award

The Salem Spirit Award recognizes those individuals or groups that are constantly promoting Salem and are frequently behind efforts to improve the city

Long time Capitol Woodcarvers member Everett Koontz was recognized for over 23 years of volunteer service with the Riverfront Carousel. Everett started with the Carousel when it first began and has been a regular and active participant ever since. Everett's long time membership and efforts with the Capitol Woodcarvers was also recognized during the award ceremony.

This is well deserved recognition, congratulations Everett.

Jeff Harness Frog Class

Nine Capitol Woodcarvers travelled to Lincoln City in October to attend the three-day "The Frog Formerly Known as Prince" bark-carving workshop taught by Jeff Harness. As you can see by the picture of the completed carvings, along with excellent instruction, there was loads of fun and joking involved in the creation of the completed projects.

Idaho Retreat (Dave Disselbrett Scholarship Fund)

The last week of September, my wife and I traveled to Grangeville, Idaho to stay in a rustic, cozy cabin hosted by Phyllis and Pete Tiernan. They donated a week's stay at Tollgate Ranch to raise money for the Dave Disselbrett scholarship fund through the Silverton Woodcarving Rendezvous. From the woodstove to the quilts on the hand-hewn log bed, we were comfortably settled in the Nez Perce National Forest. The meadow right outside our window provided sights of deer and a daily parade of cattle. While we were there, cattlemen were having their annual round-up of cattle to get them off the mountain for the winter and our dog even joined in the herding action! Pets are definitely welcome here and ours had an especially fun time. In fact, the time of her life.

During the week I had planned to carve and Joyce planned to quilt, but there was so much going on that we hardly had the time. Between daily hikes, exploring the scenery by car or 20 minute trips into town that we made about every other day to enjoy the Oktoberfest, Elks Lodge fundraiser for dictionaries for third graders, quilt show... we even talked with a world-class saddle maker. Joyce says she had the best massage of her life in Grangeville and even had a pedicure while we were there. Tollgate Ranch provides easy access to the historic Milner Road/trail with over 100 miles of hiking possibilities.

The Tiernans were great hosts and we had a good time socializing with Pete, Phyllis and their dog JoJo. Phyllis is a fabulous cook and she provided healthy meals with generous portions. The cabin is over 640 square feet of cozy comfort with a full kitchen, dining room area, living room, large bathroom, bedroom with queen bed, and a loft area with sleeping quarters upstairs. A fire pit in the front yard provides opportunity for evening s'mores. Speaking of night time, the stars and the Milky Way looked so close you might think you can touch them. If you have the chance to visit this cabin, do it! We highly recommend the experience.
